PORT STEPHENS

2021 | 2022

Conditions of Entry Terms and Conditions

Effective to 30 June 2022

General Conditions of Entry

Please read the General, COVID-19 Accommodation Pandemic Conditions of Entry, the Admission Ticket / ANNUAL PASS Conditions requirements for entry into the Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary.

1. Alcohol - Is not permitted to be brought into the sanctuary by guests/visitors.
2. Animals - No animals may be brought into the Sanctuary, with the exception of animals for disability assistance.
3. Children - Children are not permitted into the park without an accompanying adult over the age of 16 years. The safety of yourself and your children is your responsibility.
4. Entry Conditions - The admission price (inclusive of GST), issued by the Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary includes entry into the sanctuary, activities and attractions with the exception of educational tours & talks, food, beverages and merchandise.
5. Entry Refusal - The Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary reserves the right to refuse entry or remove guests for non-adherence to conditions of entry, failing to follow staff or signage instruction, anti-social behaviour (including unsocial language), violence, theft, vandalism, intoxication, use or influence of illicit substances or inadequate supervision of persons under your care.
6. Entry Inspection - It is a Condition of Entry that a search of a person and/or their possessions may be required at the time of entry into the Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary.
7. Food & Beverages – The Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary offers guests access to food and beverage facilities via the Fat Possum café. No substantial foods or beverages (drink bottles allowed) allowed inside the Sanctuary.
8. Guest Noise - Noise (including use of any audio equipment or musical instrument) must be kept to a minimum whenever inside Sanctuary grounds. Koalas are very timid and noise scares them.
9. Guest Responsibilities - All guests are responsible for their own property, and whilst the Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary takes precautions to reduce damage or theft, responsibility will not be taken for damage or loss of personal property.
10. Guests Behaviour – All guests must not tap on any glass, windows or any enclosure fences. This scares our Koalas! Guests must not reach over any enclosure fences, glass or walls. This may be dangerous! Fences are there for, your protection as well as the Koalas!
11. Photography - Guests must not reach over any enclosure fences, glass or walls or call out to get Koalas attention when taking photographs. No flash photography allowed.
12. Refund Policy - The Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary has a no refund policy which is inclusive of inclement weather and does not refund for incorrect purchases.
13. Smoking - The Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary fully supports the Smoke Free Environment Act 2000 and has adopted in principle this legislation making the Sanctuary a Smoke Free environment. Smoking is only permissible in the car park areas.

COVID-19 Accommodation Pandemic Terms and Conditions

Subject to change without notice

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary is committed to protecting the safety of our guests, staff and local community. To ensure we are doing this, we ask that you read and comply with the following Pandemic Terms and Conditions of your booking. If you are unable to abide by these, we ask that you notify our staff to discuss your booking.

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary will review and determine any new bookings and reserves the right to cancel existing bookings from guests travelling from designated Covid-19 at risk areas, as determined by NSW Health NSW Health Hotspot Locations . We would encourage guests travelling from these areas to follow advice from NSW Health regarding travel, isolation and testing.

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary will review and determine any new bookings and reserves the right to cancel existing bookings from guests travelling from areas affected by Border Restrictions, unless they can comply with the Border Control Order and their permit. NSW Legislation on Border Control.

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary is a “COVID Safe” business. We have a COVID Safe Plan in place and are complying with the NSW Health Checklist for COVID-19 Safety in NSW Camping Grounds and Caravan Parks. We require that all guests and visitors comply with the following:

All guest bookings and visitors are required to complete the COVID Guest Declaration confirming health and entry to the Sanctuary. Completed COVID Guest Declarations will be used for the purpose of checks or contact tracing activities by authorities. The Health Declaration forms will only be used for the purposes of tracing COVID-19 infections and are stored confidentially and securely. This Declaration will be sent to you as part of the booking process.

Whilst staying at Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary, all guests must comply with Government and Public Health Order directions. This includes, but is not limited to:

- 1 person per 4 sqm rule applies in all communal areas such as BBQ areas, laundries, etc. Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary has provided capacity signage in communal spaces to advise the maximum number of people that can occupy the area. Some of these areas may be required to close in order to keep guests and staff safe.
- Maintain 1.5 metres physical distancing at all times.
- Gatherings must not exceed 10 people at any time.
- In relation to pools, a maximum of 50 people allowed in the pool at any one time.
- Practice good hand hygiene.

Anyone who develops respiratory symptoms or fever (>37.5°C), even if they only have mild symptoms, MUST:

- Advise Sanctuary staff;
- Immediately get tested for COVID-19 and;
- Place themselves in isolation until they have received their result.

If the person is required under the above steps or in compliance with a Health Order to isolate, they can only do so if they have self-contained accommodation. This means:

- the person is in their own cabin/glamping tent with ensuite and kitchen facilities and they can self-isolate on their site for the required number of days.

If the person does not have their own bathroom or kitchen facilities, they will need to find an alternate place to isolate for the required number of days. A person cannot self-isolate in any on-site accommodation or on a site which relies upon shared bathroom or cooking facilities.

If you are unable to comply with these COVID-19 Terms and Conditions, please contact our Reservations office on 02 4988 0990 to advise.

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary reserves the right to cancel or terminate a booking at any time if these Terms and Conditions have not been complied with.

Port Stephens Koala Sanctuary is also encouraging all staff, visitors and guests to also download the COVIDSafe app.
